We hope to extend Harry's passion through this Memorial.

Harry Walter Voege, The Man

Harry Walter Voege (1912-2002)

Born on September 12, 1912, in Belle Harbor, New York, Voege started skiing in 1923, when his father put him on wooden boards for the first time. It didn't take long before he was hooked. He spent his early skiing years on the Dyker Heights Golf Course in Brooklyn, New York, where he lived until 1938. He moved from Brooklyn to Garden

City, Long Island, and stayed there until 1956 before moving into New York City. Voege skied often at nearby ski areas and eventually landed a spot on Stowe's ski patrol. There, he shared company with NSP founder Minnie Dole and patrolling legends Roland Palmedo and George Wesson. In 1941, not long after joining the patrol, he received National Appointment #391. He also served on the patrols at New York's Whiteface Mountain and Lake Placid. Voege hadn't even hit 30 yet, but it was clear that he'd found a niche in the ski patrol community.

In his lifetime, Harry Walter Voege made immeasurable contributions to the National Ski Patrol as well as the individual patrols and organizations he served. He was an honorary life member and founding father of the Garden City Ski Club, Garden City, New York. A businessman, entrepreneur, and investor by trade, Voege lived to ski. His world revolved around skiing. He loved skiing with a passion. Because of his love of skiing, Harry bequeathed a substantial amount of money to the NSP, which will allow the continuation of education programs and development and quality assurance programs in skier and rider safety awareness.

Thank you Harry for all that you have done for the sport of skiing. May your slopes always have a little powder on them.
